The intent of the meeting was to continue discussions regarding the numerous projects and issues that the borough has been involved. This discussion is intended to be informational, and any item needing council action would be referred to future regular council voting agenda. Also, the items discussed are intended to populate future meeting agendas for further discussion and action.

Most items related to the borough Capital Improvement Plan which are long term project planning. Topics covered included Stormwater management and flood mitigation issues, Main Street Revitalization updates, borough building repairs and improvements, grants management, parks and recreation transition, infrastructure improvements and special projects. Special projects included, but not limited to, our 2022 paving schedule, water line replacements and others as well.

The next strategic planning session is set for May 2, 2022, at 6:30 pm.
