Services to the Borough of Zelienople Pension System

Responses by: Campbell Durrant, P.C.

REF – Question 1.

Campbell Durrant, P.C. serves as labor counsel to the Requesting Municipality and provides professional legal services in accordance with a written agreement. Campbell Durrant, P.C. has provided professional legal services in the past relating to Requesting Municipality's pension system. However, Campbell Durrant, P.C. has not entered into a professional services contract with the Requesting Municipality's pension system since the effective date of Act 44. It is not possible to identify individuals who may in the future provide professional services to the Requesting Municipality's pension plan(s). As there are no professional services being provided to the pension plans at present, it is not possible to provide a description. Typically, professional legal services for a pension plan may include drafting or revising pension plan provisions or providing legal advice relative to the interpretation or implementation of particular pension plan provisions in relation to a particular set of facts, collective bargaining agreement or applicable law. Individuals who have provided or are most likely to provide legal services relating to pension issues are: Richard D. Miller, David E. Mitchell and Brian P. Gabriel. This response will be updated, if warranted, in accordance with Act 44.
