SPRING 2025

VOL. 11, ISSUE 1

Borough Project Updates

Main Street Construction

Phase II of the ongoing Main Street Revitalization project (Spring Street to Beaver Street) while delayed by supply chain disruptions, has resumed with M&B in the process of completing work in preparation for the demolition of the overhead facilities. Phase III from New Castle Street to the bridge going north is anticipated to be out for bid this summer.

Glade Run Development

The townhouses in Phase 1 are expected to be occupied by July 2025. Construction of the single-family homes in Phase 1 and Phase 2 will likely begin this summer. Paving in the eastern portion of Phase 3 should begin this spring to early summer. Paving in the western portion of Phase 3 is anticipated to start in early 2026. Single-family homes in the eastern portion of Phase 3 will be constructed in late July and occupied in November 2025. Paving of Phase 4 is expected to occur in June 2026. Waterlines will be installed on a phase-by-phase basis. Prior to the homes in Phase 4 being occupied, widening of the western section of Muntz Road will occur. The occupancy of Phase 3 will trigger a turning lane to be added at the main entrance to the development off of Route 68.

The developers have added an additional retention pond for the collection of any excess stormwater on the opposite side of Route 68.

A project of this stature is vastly complex, with a lot of moving parts. There continues to be good communication between the entities involved, and the developer has been addressing concerns as they develop. Zelienville Borough will continue to provide updates through the borough website.

Comprehensive Plan

We've been graced with several members of Council and the Community who have played vital roles on our Comprehensive Plan Steering Committee. The 2025 Comprehension Plan has reached the final stages. The Borough Planning Commission has started to review the document. The Comprehensive Plan was on the April 16th Planning Commission Agenda. Once the commissioners provide their recommendation, a public hearing will occur and finally to Borough Council.

Amphitheatre Project

Phase 1 of the Amphitheatre Terracing Project is anticipated to be completed by May 15th. Phase 1 of the project is for ADA accessibility. This project will provide better seating options and also handicapped parking. The project is being funded by a DCNR grant that the Park received in 2022 and donations from the James A. Ayers Sr. Foundation.

It is very clear that the industry standard of “old age” is looked at through the ageist lenses of “nots and cants”—“I’m too old.” “I’m not able to do this anymore.” “I can no longer do the things I used to.” Or “I can’t learn new things.” However, what we have experienced since creating ASPIRE® Wellness at Passavant Community is that there are great opportunities for discovery at every age.

ASPIRE® Wellness is a holistic model of wellness and offers programming in six dimensions of wellness: Active, Spiritual, Purposeful, Intellectual, Relational and Expressive. Our participants are encouraged to create, to be human and most importantly feel safe to make mistakes.

Take for instance, Bill and Sandy Faulkner. Bill, having worked in engineering, and Sandy, working as a Psychotherapist and educator, share the passion of continual growth as they age. They are continuing to push boundaries and try new things. With many options in all dimensions of ASPIRE® Wellness, Bill and Sandy find their place by doing activities that challenge them the most. From taking exercise classes to painting to history lectures, they are kept with their minds engaged. Sandy also teaches a Ukulele class as part of our programming. It enables her to use her talents and gifts to better our community. Class members are improving their fine motor skills using their hands, increasing their brain health by reading the music and having fun!

Challenge the perceptions and standards that often limit us and prevent us from really living. Challenge yourself to try something new this year!

If you are interested in learning the Ukulele or about any of the other classes, special events or trips we offer in ASPIRE® Wellness, please visit www.lutheranseniorlife.org/aspirewellness or call 724-452-3456.

ASPIRE® Wellness is open to all of our surrounding community for a small yearly fee.

Historical Society Celebrates 50th Anniversary

The US Bicentennial was in 1976, but one year earlier in April of 1975, leading citizens of Zelienople founded the Zelienople Historical Society. There are still a few original members who remember those early days. The Passavant House, home of Zelig Passavant, was purchased in 1977 from local historian Lester Mohr. The Buhl House was donated to ZHS in 1992 by Joan Teichart. Both houses have extensive records and local artifacts from our town's history. ZHS members volunteer and maintain both these museum houses for our community.

Zelig Passavant's son, the Rev. William Passavant founded over 40 benevolent institutions, including schools, orphanages, and hospitals. His descendant Rev. Jay Passavant gave us our mission statement: Respecting Our Heritage, Reaffirming Our Values, Revitalizing Our Community (inspirational values for any organization).

This year's 50th celebration will include several events throughout the summer and fall. Watch for signs at the Passavant House and announcements on our webpage at: www.zeliehistory.org. The events will include monthly gatherings at the Passavant House back yard: live music, hot dogs, sauerkraut, watermelon, beer, pretzels, cake, ice cream, and a 1970s Disco Party.

Our local residents are the key to our past, present, and future, so let's celebrate this historical milestone as a community.

Zelienople Police Department's New Fleet

In March of this year, the Zelienople Police Department welcomed their new fleet! The new fleet consists of three SUVs and one pick-up truck. The pick-up truck is a new edition to the fleet. Previously, the department operated with three marked and one unmarked SUVs. The truck will be helpful in transporting equipment, such as road cones, throughout the borough during various special events.

The old police vehicles were past their useful life and repair bills were becoming costly. Mechanical issues of the old vehicles were causing frequent disruptions. Therefore, having new and mechanically sound vehicles was important to the department to avoid any disruptions in the daily patrols and duties.

Due to vehicle inventory issues stemming from COVID, ordering the new vehicles took longer much longer than normal. It took about a year from the time the new vehicles were ordered to when the vehicles became fully operational. After the department received the vehicles, the vehicles were sent to an outfitter to install interior equipment such as lights, siren, and the partition, as well as decals on the exterior of the vehicles. Each new vehicle is also fully equipped with Axon Fleet dash cameras as well as other necessary equipment such as AEDs and laptops.

Come see the new vehicles at Glade Run's Touch-A-Truck on May 17th, 2025!
